The image features a dark, almost black background. Scattered across this background are numerous hearts of various colors, including shades of blue, green, yellow, orange, red, pink, and purple. The hearts are of varying sizes and are slightly out of focus, creating a soft, bokeh-like effect. In the center of the image, the text "What is love?" is written in a clean, white, sans-serif font.

What is love?

Love can be shown in many, many different ways.

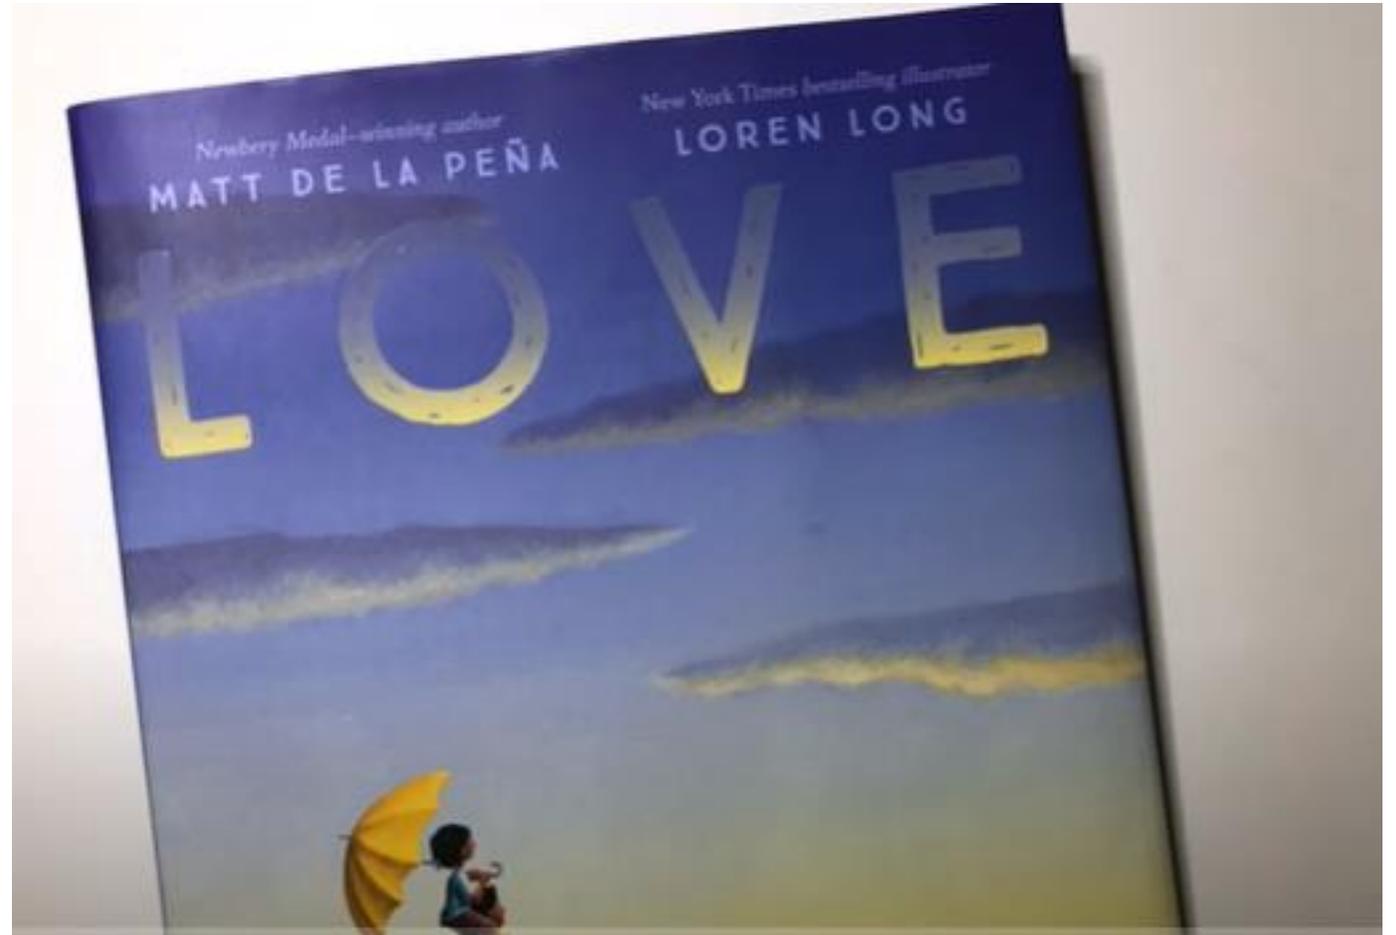

As a class, can you list the different ways love can be SHOWN?

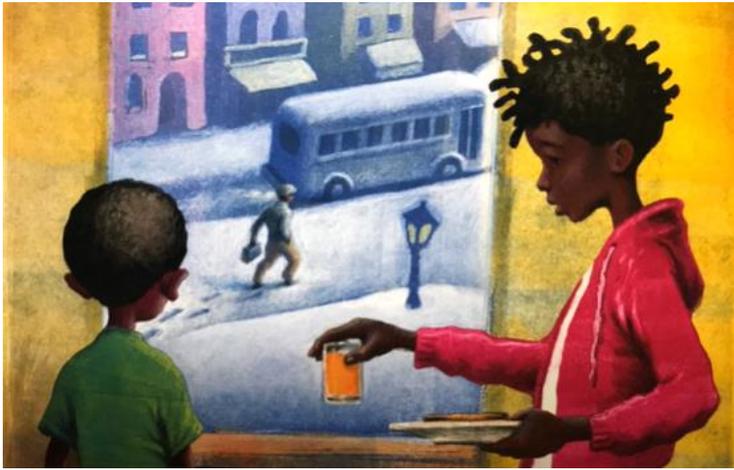

Listen to this story of 'love'
very carefully.

There are a lot of very different and unique ways
that love is shown
throughout the story.

Get ready to share what you spot after the story to add even more ideas to the list you have begun.

[https://youtu.be/zwrA4UHL
9\_0](https://youtu.be/zwrA4UHL9_0)

What are some of your favourite ideas on the list?
Who could you use some of these ideas with?

---

“HOW DO YOU
SPELL ‘LOVE’?”

-PIGLET

“YOU DON’T SPELL IT,
YOU FEEL IT.”

-POOH

– A.A. Milne
From the book Winnie the Pooh

POPSUGAR

A time to reflect

---

Dear God,

Thank you for reminding us of all the ways that love can be shown to others.

As we continue to grow, help us to show love in all that we do. Considering others, helping to bring a smile to another's face, letting someone know that we are thinking of them.

Help us also to love ourselves. Making time for the things that we enjoy and ensuring our inner voice is a kind and positive one that helps us to achieve all that we set out to.

Amen

